

TRANSPORTATION FROM NARITA TO KITAFUJI

When you arrive at the NARITA AIRPORT, you can either take a train or a bus to reach either TOKYO train station or SHINJUKU train station. You can then ride a “Highway Bus” to the KITAFUJI AREA.

NARITA→TOKYO or SHINJUKU (BY TRAIN)

NARITA (Airport)→SHINJUKU (Train Terminal) by train (the NARITA EXPRESS), below, is one of the major transportation methods of traveling from Narita to Tokyo or Shinjuku. <http://www.jreast.co.jp/e/nex/>

Fare: JPY3,110 for an adult (JPY 4,430/First Class adult) Travel Time: about 1 hour 45 min. Scheduled duration: every 20 minutes during day time. Timetable (From Narita to Tokyo, Narita to Shinjuku, etc.)

NARITA→SHINJUKU (Bus Terminal) (BY BUS)

After you clear immigration and customs at Narita, you will enter the arrivals terminal. There are ticket counters for catching a “Limousine Bus” to SHINJUKU BUS TERMINAL. See the link below for times, boarding points.

Fare: JPY3,000 for an adult (JPY1,500 for a child) Travel time: about 2 hours

FROM TOKYO STATION TO KITAFUJI AREA

When you arrive at Tokyo station, head for the “Yaesu Minami (South)” Exit. Find the ticket counter. (see the map below). From there you can purchase tickets for a “Highway Bus” to the Kitafuji area. The buses may say departure for “KAWAGUCHIKO,” but that’s ok—Kawaguchiko is the lake just west of Fujiyoshida City. Some buses may stop at the YAMANAKAKO, HIRANO, or OSHINO bus stops—so see if you can ride one of those if you are staying near that bus stop. Otherwise, all buses will stop at either the FUJISAN STATION or FUJIKYU HIGHLAND bus stops, and you can taxi to your accommodation from there.

The map and timetable are below.

Fare: JPY1,700 for an adult Travel time: about 1 hour 40 min.

FROM SHINJUKU STATION TO KITAFUJI AREA

When you arrive at Shinjuku station, you need to exit from the West (Nishi) exit. From there, go on foot to the SHINJUKU BUS TERMINAL (see the map below). This can be tricky, so ask someone to help you—show the map.

When you get to the bus terminal, ride a “Highway Bus” to the Kitafuji area. Some buses may stop at the YAMANAKAKO, HIRANO, or OSHINO bus stops—so see if you can ride one of those if you are staying near that bus stop. Otherwise, all buses will stop at either the FUJISAN STATION or FUJIKYU HIGHLAND bus stops, and you can taxi to your accommodation from there. Check the link below, timetable below, and map below.
